functionality of each home. Dominic's architectural guidelines will ensure that the various phases will have diversity, continuity, functionality...and be aesthetically pleasing.

Chris Scott

Needing no introduction to people in the Okanagan, Chris Scott is one of the most dynamic and trusted CEO's in British Columbia. Chris has mastered the art of taking undervalued First Nations lands and reverting them to crown controlled development sites, transforming them into viable sources of economic sustainability for First Nations while opening up huge tracts of land for the benefit of development. Working closely with the Government of Canada the Penticton Indian Band and Indian and Northern Affairs Canada, Chris has transformed perhaps the most valuable piece of property in the South Okanagan into a fully secured crown controlled development site with an initial 150 year tenure, giving purchasers all the rights and entitlements of fee simple ownership.

Curt Jansen (Real West Project Management)

Curt Jansen heads up the sales and marketing for Skaha Hills. With over 30 years of proven hospitality and real estate sales and marketing experience, Curt's number one focus is the customer. Curt comes to Skaha Hills with an outstanding reputation built on a solid foundation of trust, integrity and a genuine care for the customer.

Mohamed Awad

Mohamed Awad has been appointed General Manager of the Winery and Vineyards at Skaha Hills. Mohamed is well known in the Okanagan as he managed the Spirit Ridge Resort and Vineyards in Osoyoos and is a former manager of the Black Hills Estate Winery.
